

Dr Daniel Quistorff

MBChB, BHB, BScCogScience

Joins the Millhouse Integrative Medical Centre

We welcome Dr Daniel to the Millhouse medical team.

Daniel is an American by birth and received his training at the Universities of California and Auckland graduating in medicine in 2008.

Since then Daniel has primarily worked in the secondary care hospital setting but now believes that general practice is the specialist vocation he should follow.

Daniel is a vibrant outgoing personality.

He has a special interest in integrative and nutritional medicine. He also has experience in BOTOX skin therapy and redeveloping his interests in appearance medicine.
